VISITING MERCHANTS SEE ST. LOUIS FROM A COACH. Greatest Reductions Known Wednesday!

The Hargadine-McKittrieck Dry Goods Company entertained its customers with a tally-ho party yesterday afternoon.

Two coachloads of merchants left the Washington avenue district, with the "tooting" horns, and the cheers from crowded windows in all the big stores, at 4 o'clock, bound for an excursion to the World's Fair grounds, through Forest Park to the Highlands and West End Heights.

The visitors were acompanied by Lud Churchill, general salesman of the firm, for Indian and Oklahoma Territories; John Marlon and Clarence Gannaway, assistant salesmen of the same field.

ing about the prospects of Indian Territory, said: "The agricultural outlook is brilliant. I live in a corner of the State, which, while within the Creek Nation, borders on the Osage and Cherokee nations. It is really a garden spot of the world. Our crops of corn and wheat are excellent. Three years ago we began cotton raising and we have produced as fine a quality of cotton as the world has even seen.

"The value of the Indian Territory market is inestimable. St. Louis ought to control that market. Our marchants like to come here, but St. Louis is not quite as keen to the advantage, I fear, as it ought to be. Chicago is making strenuous endeavors to wrest it from St. Louis.

"Chicago has no business there by right. It is not its field, but St. Louis must do some hustling to maintain its natural rights. It cannot afford to neglect Indian or Oklahoma Territories. CONGRESS OF FRATERNAL SOCIETIES IS IN SESSION.

fembers Will Discuss World's Fair and Probably Will Meet in St. Louis Next Year.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 25.—The annual convention of the National Fraternal Conress met in Masonic Temple in this city o-day, several hundred delegates attend-

President Langfitt in his annual report stated that almost twenty millions of the best people of this or any other country are directly interested in the success or permanence of the fraternal system. The members are grouped in 166 societies, and the present rate of distribution is considerably in excess of $1,000,000 per week. For the last year, the president stated, the reports from all the societies show that the reports from all the societies show that the gain in membership has been phenomenal—exceeding 12 per cent—with a yet greater increase in assets. President Langitt also spoke of successful legislation by the various State legislatures.

He suggested various topics for discussion at the convention, citing, among others, the St. Louis Universal Exposition, which, he says, will afford a magnificent opportunity to present to the world the fraternal system.

Doctor Oronhyatekha of Toronto made a brief address. Routine business occupied the remainder of the first day's session. St. Louis will likely get the next convention.
